

SENATE INQUIRY COMMITTEE

Influence of private consulting firms on public policy

Date: 11/2021

The Senate sets up an inquiry committee on the growing role of consulting firms in public policy.

Its remit covers the cost of contracts, how they were awarded, the actual role of consultants in decisions, ethical rules and declarations of interests.